FILE THE FIRST CASE

Under The Torrens Law In
In Knox County Court

The Action Brought By An
Assignee In Probate

The Last Will Of Bertha C.
Payne Is Filed

Delinquent Tax List Will Not
Be Large

Verdict Set Aside In Case By
Judge Jewell

The first suit under the Torrens law in Knox county was filed Tuesday afternoon in the probate court. The case was that of Robert L. Carr, assignee of E. J. Hayes et al., the firm being known as Hayes Brothers vs. The Gleany Glass Company. The suit is filed by the assignee for the creditors to register title and to sell lands. As this is the first case of the kind to be filed in the county under the Torrens law it will be watched with much interest. The date of the hearing has not yet been set down by Probate Judge Wilkins.

The Payne Will

The last will and testament of Bertha C. Payne, late of Mt. Vernon, has been filed in probate. By the terms of the will she gives to her son, Kenneth Payne, her piano and all her right, and interest in the homestead property on Ann street. The same is to be held in trust and Harrison Judy is named as the trustee. The trustee may sell the piano, rent or sell the real estate, the income of which is to be used toward the support of her child, Kenneth Payne. The testatrix states she holds a policy in an insurance company, payable to her son, Kenneth. She directs that this money be invested in the liquidating the balance due upon the purchase of real estate. The testatrix gives to her mother, Elizabeth J. Copeland certain household goods and personal articles. To her sister, Lillie M. Gipson she also gives personal effects and household goods. To her husband, Thomas Payne, she gives her rings, also the money from a life insurance policy held in the Court of Calanthe. Elizabeth J. Copeland is named as the executrix of the will, but should she be dead at the time or declines to serve then the testatrix's sister, Lillie M. Gipson, is to act as executrix. The will was signed April 14, 1914, in the presence of Henry C. Devin and Mary Gibson.

Verdict Set Aside

In the case of Kaufman vs. Frazier, tried in the court of common pleas of Knox county, some weeks ago, Judge Jewell has set aside the verdict, which was returned in favor of the plaintiff for $301.92. The court held that the verdict was excessive.

Kaufman brought the suit against Frazier, claiming personal injuries. He was working for the defendant and he claimed a hay fork slipped and struck him on the arm, fracturing the bone and producing other painful injuries. A motion for a new trial was filed by the attorneys for defendant. The motion was sustained by the court and the verdict was set aside.

Executors Appointed

James C. Kinney of Valley Junction, Iowa, has been appointed executor of George W. Kinney in the probate court of Knox county. Bond is fixed at $200, with A. C. Staggs and Alexander Kinney as sureties.

List Not Large

County Treasurer Bell states that the delinquent tax list this year will not be large. There are more delinquents in Mt. Vernon than anywhere else. There are but few delinquents throughout the county.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengele, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.

ELOPEMENT

Of A Young Couple Residents
In Mt. Vernon

Believed That They Were Married In Cleveland

An elopement of two well known Mt. Vernon people has just come to public attention, although the whereabouts of the participants still remains a mystery. The couple concerned are Miss Alice Frye, niece of Miss Amanda E. Frye of North McKenzie street and Mr. Thomas Feeney, son of Mrs. James McVerry of Cleveland.

Feeney has been employed at the Mt. Vernon Candy Kitchen and Miss Frye worked there last week. The couple had been very attentive to each other and Miss Amanda Frye's suspicions were aroused Sunday when she heard her niece moving around upstairs shortly after dinner. She said nothing, however. At eleven o'clock Sunday night, a knock on the Frye door announced the presence of Mr. Feeney who came, he said, after Miss Frye's grip. When asked for the reason of his action, he stated that they were going to Cleveland and get married.

The grip was turned over to him and nothing has been heard of the couple since. The supposition is that they took the early Monday morning train to Cleveland. Miss Amanda Frye has a sister, Mrs. A. L. Sawday, residing in Cleveland and it is presumed that the couple either went there or to the home of Mr. Feeney's mother.
